

COMPLETE SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED - REGISTER TODAY!

Making the Connections

New York's Trafficked Youth

TUESDAY, MAY 9th 2017, 8:30AM-5PM

At the Best Western Conference Center in Kingston, NY

Making the Connections for New York's Trafficked Youth is designed to foster the collaboration and cooperation among professionals, local and state law enforcement agencies, and social services providers who serve vulnerable children at risk of or already victims of sex trafficking. The day-long, multidisciplinary event of panel presentations and workshops will be focused on the statewide inter-connectedness of New York's missing, exploited, runaway, homeless, and trafficked youth.

Conference at - a - Glance

Welcome: Michael Iapoco, Esq., Commissioner of Social Services, Ulster County
Donna Linder, Executive Director, Child Find of America, Inc.
Jackie Arsenuk, Safe Harbour Coordinator, Ulster County

Opening Keynote: A Gender Responsive Focus on Trauma Reactions in Victimized Youth – Afua Addo

Panel Presentation: NY's Safe Harbour Programs: Learning from Success in Monroe, Nassau and Westchester
Madeline Hannan, Moderator.

Panelists: Serena Curry, Nassau; Valerie Douglas, Monroe; Phil Goldstein & Michelle Bethencourt-Garcia, Westchester

Keynote: Human Trafficking is a Public Health Issue
– Dr. Hanni Stoklosa

Workshop Session 1 (concurrent – select one)

1. High Risk: Runaway, Homeless & Youth Transitioning From Care
2. What Schools Need to Know, Recognize & Respond to CSEC and the Trafficking of Students
3. Labor Trafficking of Domestic and Migrant Youth

Workshop Session 2 (concurrent – select one)

1. Trauma Responsive Residential Services for CSEC Survivors: Practical and Theoretical Implications
2. The Cybercrime Connection
3. Barriers to Identifying Trafficking Survivors in LGBTQ Communities

Workshop Session 3 (concurrent – select one)

1. Risk Tolerance and Safety Planning
2. The Interstate Compact
3. In the Rearview Mirror: Family Conflict and Corporal Punishment

$75 Conference Registration Fee includes Breakfast and Lunch.

To register and view conference schedule go to:

<https://making-the-connections-for-ny-trafficked-youth.eventbrite.com>

The Best Western Conference Center is conveniently located just off Kingston Thruway Exit 19 and across from the Trailways Bus Station. Rooms are available to participants at a special rate of $109/night. For more information contact Donna Linder at 845-883-6060 or email donnalinder@childfindofamerica.org.

CHILD FIND of AMERICA®

BRINGING KIDS HOME • KEEPING THEM SAFE