

Save the Date: Tourette's and Tic Disorders for Clinicians

Saturday, November 14, 2015

8:00 a.m - 1:00 p.m.

Hilton Garden Inn Ithaca - Ithaca, New York

The Tourette Association of America / New York Centers of Excellence Consortium in partnership with Weill Cornell Medical College is offering a no-cost medical education conference for physicians and allied health professionals in Ithaca and the surrounding region. The conference will be offered through the Association's partnership with the CDC, and has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Leaders of the New York Centers of Excellence Consortium have planned a practical update for providers on the recognition, diagnosis, treatment and management of Tourette Syndrome, other tic disorders, and commonly associated conditions (including ADHD and OCD).

Speakers: Cathy Budman, MD (Hofstra; North Shore-LIJ), Barbara Coffey, MD, MS (Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai), Jonathan Mink, MD, PhD (University of Rochester); John Walkup, MD (Weill Cornell; NY Presbyterian), Heather Adams, PhD (University of Rochester), and Shannon Bennett, PhD (Weill Cornell; NY Presbyterian)

To learn more, visit the Tourette Association website.

For questions or to secure early registration, email NYprogram@tourette.org.

*Weill Cornell Medical College designates this live activity for a minimum of 4 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Partial funding for this program was made possible in part by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators does not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services, nor does the mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.