

This FREE course will include two virtual sessions on Zoom:

SESSION I:

Date: Wednesday, November 17, 2021

Time: 6:30 - 8:00 PM

Content:

Module 1 Seizures and Epilepsy: What are they?

Module 2 Seizures and Epilepsy: Part 2

Module 3 Treating the Epilepsies

SESSION 2:

Date: Thursday, November 18, 2021

Time: 6:30 - 8:00 PM

Content:

Module 4 Impact of Seizures

Module 5 Seizure First Aid

Module 6 Using Rescue Therapies

Module 7 Using Seizure Action Plans and Delegation in Schools

To successfully complete the course and become eligible for Continuing Education Units*, participants must participate in ALL training modules, and complete pre- and post-assessments (must pass the latter with 80% correct).

TO REGISTER, VISIT:

<https://bit.ly/SchoolNurseTraining2021>

URL is case-sensitive

*The Epilepsy Foundation offers continuing education units (CEUs) for nurses for this new version of the Seizure Training for School Nurses: Caring for Students. This educational activity is approved for 2.75 continuing education units. This nursing continuing professional development activity was approved by the American Association of Neuroscience Nurses, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation. Accreditation Period: April 1, 2020 to March 31, 2022.

EPILEPSY
FOUNDATION

NORTHEASTERN
NEW YORK

Seizure Training for School Nurses: Caring for Students

Join us to learn about:

- Creating a safe and supportive school environment
- Supporting positive treatment outcomes
- Maximizing educational and developmental opportunities